

South Florida Council, Boy Scouts of America
2021 Hispanic Heritage & Whitney M. Young Awards

The South Florida Council, Boy Scouts of America, cordially invites you to join us at our Hispanic Heritage & Whitney M. Young Awards virtual event. These special awards honor respected community leaders and organizations that exemplify the values of Scouting through their service and support of our community. Chairman Alejandro Mendieta and Vice Chairman Jose Felix Diaz invite you to join in celebrating this year’s class of honorees.

We celebrate this legacy as we reaffirm our commitment to inspire and prepare future generations of Scouting youth. We are pleased to announce that this year’s honorees are:

Alicia Botero Speight Florida Market Leader Willis Towers Watson Hispanic Heritage Award	Yolanda Cash Jackson Shareholder Becker & Poliakoff Whitney M. Young Award	Tony Argiz South Florida Managing Partner BDO USA, LLP Lifetime Achievement Award	Jorge Acevedo President & Founder La Colonia Medical Center, Inc. Hispanic Heritage Award	Jaret L. Davis Co-Managing Shareholder Greenberg Traurig, P.A. Whitney M. Young Award

Proceeds from the event help support South Florida Council’s Outreach programs of Broward, Miami-Dade, and Monroe counties, serving our hardest to serve neighborhoods through assistance in leadership.

DOUBLE IMPACT for 2021 –
 All new gifts this year will be matched with a Challenge Grant up to $100,000.

This year’s event will be a small intimate gathering in September. Photos and video will be shared on social media platforms including LinkedIn, YouTube, and Facebook on OCTOBER 1st, 2020. Additional promotion will be through our Social Influencers sharing and boosting the event. Sponsors are recognized in the video.
